NC STATE FACULTY HOUSE

Kannapolis, NC- With the tremendous development of the North Carolina Research Campus, the NC State Fruit and Vegetable Science Institute has created a place for visiting faculty and staff to reside during their visits to the campus. Whether it is a single or multiple night stay, the Faculty House will be provided for not only NC State University affiliates, but also but also other participating partners and universities at the NC Research Campus. The NC State Faculty House will offer a comfortable and convenient place for visiting faculty, researchers, and campus business partners as well as a place for intellectual interaction to take place among the NC Research Campus partners.

The Faculty House is located at 105 S. Ridge Avenue directly across from the NC Research Campus and Cannon Village in downtown Kannapolis, NC. The house has five private suites with fully furnished queen/full size bedrooms. Each suite will be equipped with full private baths, wireless high-speed internet access, and cable television. Along with the individual room features there will be a fully equipped
